Parse and Correlate Applicability Matrix

SEC Section A3.35, sets out the requirements for a "Parse and Correlate Applicability Matrix".

The Parse and Correlate Applicability Matrix includes:

a) a list of each of the versions of the Parse and Correlate Software that have been released; and

b) in relation to each such version of the Parse and Correlate Software:

   (i) its version number;

   (ii) the version(s) of the DCC User Interface Specification to which that version of the Parse and Correlate Software relates, and the version of the DUIS XML Schema which that version of the DCC User Interface Specification contains;

   (iii) the version(s) of the Message Mapping Catalogue to which that version of the Parse and Correlate Software relates;

   (iv) the version(s) of the GBCS to which that version of the Parse and Correlate Software relates.

The current Parse and Correlate Applicability Matrix is set out below.
